DETAILED ACTION

Applicant has already elected the apparatus claims 19-29 (with traverse) in the letter dated 07 August 2006. The traversal will be addressed separately later. Upon further consideration, an additional species restriction will be imposed upon the applicant as follows:

- a. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: A] washer step interposed on at least one flotation stage (fig. 2) B] a washer step between stages (fig. 3) and C] washer step subsequent to ash removal step (fig. 4). The species are independent or distinct because the disclosure of a single species in the prior art may not anticipate the other claimed species.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 20-21 and 28-29 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

2. Applicant's election with traverse of the apparatus claims 19-29 in the reply filed on 07 August 2006 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the process reads on purifying water and the preamble which recites, "feed suspension of recoverable solids" can be a wastewater. This is not found persuasive because the claim also recites that there is a "purified suspension" which flows through an "accept line"-term of art. Water which still contains solids is not considered to be purified water. To the contrary, typically wastewater which contains solids is the feed stream to a wastewater flotation process with the sole purpose of the wastewater flotation is to remove the suspended solids. Dorflinger (US 5358605) clearly illustrates the differences between such flotation steps as he discloses both deinking flotation at 32 (consistent with applicants apparatus and process) as well as "flash" flotation (dissolved air flotation) disclosed at 39 which functions to remove all of the suspended solids and form a recycle water stream for reuse of the system water.

This portion of the requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.
